Course Description:

The course covers job search fundamentals such as web-based resources for resume and cover letter creation, online-based job search, social networking as a career-building tool, and is taught by a skilled bilingual instructor. The course will help participants with resumes, cover letters, and job interview preparation. Along with learning job search skills, participants will be able to practice using employment related vocabulary and will receive essential information about employment including communication skills, employment benefits, etc. Our bilingual staff will be available for individual job interview preparation sessions.

After registration, you will receive a zoom link that you can use for the entire course. If you are unable to attend some of the classes within one single course, you can make up those classes at any of the next courses at your convenience.
